

Whirr Crew

WhirrCrew Infrastructure and Sub-processors - Professional Services

Published: 25 February 2025

Scope

This documentation describes Approved Sub-processors as defined in the WhirrCrew Data Processing Addendum (DPA), including entities and third-party cloud tools material to the performance of Professional Services that Process Personal Data.

Capitalized terms used in this documentation are defined in the WhirrCrew DPA. WhirrCrew may also use other third-party tools not listed here as agreed to by the parties, or tools that do not qualify as Approved Sub-processors (e.g. tools that are entirely on premise or cloud tools that do not process Personal Data).

Entity Name	Entity Type	Entity Country
Google, LLC	Third-party tools, e.g. Google Workspace	United States
Nuclino GmbH	Third-party tools, e.g. Nuclino	Germany

Customer agrees and acknowledges that WhirrCrew engages a limited number of its personnel via an employer of record and/or via other means of alternative contracting (individual companies or sole entrepreneurship) in the European Economic Area, Ukraine and Turkey (collectively the “Remote Personnel”). WhirrCrew shall treat all Remote Personnel in terms of security and privacy of Customer Data (including Personal Data) in the same way as its employees and employ the same effective control over their work regardless of their formal legal status. WhirrCrew considers the Remote Personnel as its personnel under its direct control and not as separate sub-processors. WhirrCrew does not publicly disclose the list of the Remote Personnel and their location to protect their privacy. Upon Customer’s request, WhirrCrew shall provide such a list subject to the duty of confidentiality. If the Remote Personnel is deemed third-party sub-processors for the purpose of applicable privacy laws, Customer grants general consent for PCS to use Remote Personnel as sub-processors.